CLASSIFICATION TALK

Rick Kellington

Rick was born in 1948 and grew up near Canada's most southerly city, Pelee Point Ontario.

Rick and Brenda were married in 1970 and have 3 grown children and 7 grandchildren.

After becoming a CA, Rick operated a small convenience store for 3 years. He returned to the financial lending business with a move to London, ON. This was followed by positions with Ford Credit, Scotia Bank, Bank of British Columbia and Roy Nat until his retirement in 2005.

CLASSIFICATION TALK

Peter Bickham

For the past 14 years, Peter has been employed as a Mechanical Engineer with Colt Engineering. Peter and Sharon were married in 1971 and have 2 children. Their son teaches in Japan and their daughter works at Flour Engineering.

One of Peter's first distasteful tasks upon moving to Calgary in 1982 was to lay off 130 people at Colt. One of his most enjoyable and interesting jobs was to deal with the naturally occurring asphalt/pitch lake in Trinidad.

Peter and Sharon are gentleman/woman farmers on their 4.2 acre acreage.

Meeting Minutes

Scribe: Bruce Bohnet

O' Canada and Grace were led by the eloquent playing of Betty French. Welcome back Betty!

Speaking of welcome back, we were delighted to see Marg Zankl back at her job behind the ticket table. She appears to have overcome complications that resulted from her recent surgery. Also of note was the return of Chuck Bury after a lengthy absence due to illness.

44 members and 14 guests made up today's meeting: 4 - South, 2 - Downtown, 1 - North, 1 - Heritage and 6 guests were introduced by Harold Hanna.

Club in a Club – Ron Smith introduced this program aimed at improving our Club's membership. Expect to see more of Ron's efforts in upcoming meetings.

Bob Montgomery welcomed the birthday boys as well as those celebrating anniversaries. Members celebrating a birthday during the month of October are Alistair Limpitlaw, Ron Smith, Fred Jessee, Paul Hussey and Peter Bickham.

Sergeant at Arms Barry Moreland expressed his desire to go easy on us, then proceeded to deal a heavy blow to Paul Gaudet by presenting him with a book entitled "The Art of Closing a Deal" to help him with his raffle job. "Good news bucks" included an announcement by Barry Korpatnisky that Kim Kartushyn has been accepted into the Fort McMurray Rotary Club.

A ticket raffle to golf at McKenzie Meadows, donated by Jim Thompson, was won by Joe Jogia. The 50/50 draw was taken home by one of our guests, Don Campbell.

A Paul Harris fellowship was acquired by Rob Whitfield. Barry Korpatnisky presented Rob with the coveted pin and medallion signifying his achievement.
